LB 183, 23, 378
LR 49

SENATOR KOCH: Well what I am saying, Mr. Speaker, is that yesterday, if I remember correctly, he voted a certain way and then he changed his vote for purpose of reconsideration.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Yes.

SENATOR KOCH: After 25 votes were cast, which is Constitutionally what it takes to have a bill passed. I suggest that if he is trying to get a rule change where this can happen on every Final Reading...

SPEAKER MARVEL: No, sir...

SENATOR KOCH: Oh, he is asking for a rule change so he could not make that action again?

SPEAKER MARVEL: Yes, sir.

SENATOR KOCH: Oh fine, thank you. I agree.

SPEAKER MARVEL: That is the hole in the rules and the Chairman of the Rules Committee has discussed this with us and he will, together with his committee, come in with a proposed rule change to fill this particular gap. This is especially important as we get into the final days when such an action could create havoc.

SENATOR KOCH: Thank you.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Kelly, your motion is withdrawn. The Clerk has some items to read into the.....

CLERK: Mr. President, your committee on E & R respectfully reports that we have examined LB 23 and find the same correctly enrolled and 183 correctly enrolled, signed, Senator Wesely.

Mr. President, LR 49 is ready for your signature.

SPEAKER MARVEL: While the Legislature is in session and capable of transacting business I am about to sign and do sign LB 23, 183 and LR 49.

We are now ready to go to the, Item Number eight which is special order concerning LB 378.

CLERK: Mr. President, LB 378 was introduced by the Judiciary Committee and signed by the members thereof. Read LB 378.
